3. Limitation
Are there any restrictions on the P&F?  The P&F is an unincorporated association and has no legal identity separate from it members. It is a consultative body established within the parish under the auspices of the principal of the school, who is responsible for carrying out the policies and directives of the Bishop and the Catholic Schools Office.  The P&F has no authority in the day-to-day operation or management of the school.	Diocesan systemic schools are not legal entities in their own right. Therefore parent bodies which are part of the school cannot take on a legal identity of their own. P&Fs must not be separately incorporated.  The P&F recognises the need to act with respect for:  The role of the parish priest with regard to decisions involving school/parish property; of the school.  The P&F must seek the consent of the parish priest and the principal for activities which affect parish or school property and its use and has no capacity to enter into contracts that affect parish land or facilities.  The Catholic Schools Office indemnifies each past and present member of the executive committee for the time being of the P&F to the full extent permitted by law against all liability arising as a result of that person acting as a member of the executive committee of the P&F unless either of the following applies:  a) the liability arises out of conduct involving a lack of good faith on the part of the executive committee member; or  b) the liability arises out of conduct of the executive committee member known to the executive committee member to be wrongful.	<ul> <li>The authority and responsibility of the principal in making decisions relating to the school and / or any activity using the school's name;</li> <li>The need for any matter affecting an individual person, student, parent or staff member to be directed immediately and without discussion to the principal or their delegate (assistant principal, year coordinator);</li> <li>The role of the school board (if the school has a board); and</li> <li>The established protocols of the school and parish.</li> </ul>

4.	Me	mbership
Who can be a member?  Membership is open to all parents or carers of students attending the school and to members of the parish community.  The parish priest and principal shall be members, ex-officio, of the P&F and of all its committees.  Members of the school staff may also become members of the P&F.  The parish priest may choose to appoint another priest, deacon or pastoral associate to represent him.		ship is open to all parents or carers of students attending the and to members of the parish community.  Sh priest and principal shall be members, ex-officio, of the of all its committees.  So of the school staff may also become members of the P&F.  Sh priest may choose to appoint another priest, deacon or	Because the P&F is a vehicle for community involvement in the school it tries to find ways to include all. A member of the P&F does not have to be the parent of a student at the school. Members of the parish may also join.  Ex-officio means these individuals are members by right of the position they hold. Ex-officio members have the same rights as ordinary members, including voting, however, they do not always choose to exercise these rights. Although the priest's responsibilities often preclude active involvement in P&F meetings an invitation should be extended once dates have been finalised for the year.
5.	Ma	nagement
5.1	Wh	at is the executive committee?
	a) b)	The executive committee is the group responsible for the management of the P&F.  The executive committee comprises the president, secretary, treasurer and the Diocesan Parent Council representative together with the ex-officio members and other members elected at a general meeting.
	c) d)	The parish priest (or priest representing feeder schools) and principal are ex-officio members of the executive committee. The executive committee has the power to make decisions at executive meetings on behalf of the P&F when appropriate and within the limits of clause 13.3 (allocation of funds).

The executive committee meets with the principal prior to general meetings to plan the activities of the P&F, to look at issues that have been identified (preferably in writing), to plan the agenda for the general meeting and consider the most suitable way of dealing with issues raised.  There is scope in the election process for an executive team to decide amongst themselves which roles they will fulfil.  Some schools find the position of vice-president useful because it serves both as support for the president and as preparation for presidency. Other roles can be considered in order to spread responsibilities and make the workload more manageable such as:  Class parent coordinator  Social events coordinator  Parent education coordinator  Public relations coordinator  Fund-raising coordinator  Road safety coordinator  Road safety coordinator  Political action coordinator  School board liaison  Parish liaison

P&F Constitution	Explanatory Guidance Notes

8. Re-election
At each annual general meeting of the P&F, officers and members of the executive committee shall retire from office but shall be eligible for re-election. The officers of the P&F shall not hold any one office for more than three consecutive years.  In calling for nominations the P & F must, no later than three weeks prior to the annual general meeting, advise the school community of any officers currently in their third consecutive year of office who therefore will not be eligible for re-election. In the circumstance that no one else nominates for such a position, the retiring officer may continue in the role for a period not exceeding 12 months. No further extension is permissible.	After a one year break a person could be re-elected to serve for up to another three years.
9. Termination of office
Can positions be terminated?  The position of any officer absent from any three consecutive general meetings without reasonable cause may be declared vacant.

P&F Constitution	Explanatory Guidance Notes
A member of the executive committee may be removed from office by resolution of the P&F carried out at a general or special general meeting, providing that due notice of a motion to remove the member specifying the grounds has first been given.
10. General meetings
The executive committee is to organise a general meeting at least once every school term.	General meetings provide a regular opportunity for the involvement of the wider school community in the business of the P&F.
Notice of the meeting is to be given in a prior school newsletter indicating the need for members to send agenda items, in writing or by email, to the secretary before the date of the next executive committee	It is advantageous for the dates of meetings for the year to be published as early as possible in the new school year.

A quorum for a general meeting shall be eight members including the principal (or nominee) and three executive committee members. A period of fifteen minutes is to be allowed before a general meeting is cancelled.	A pre-organised and publicised agenda is required. If discussion continues past 15 minutes consider establishing a subcommittee to further explore the issue with a report back date.  General meetings should receive reports for endorsement or comment. The detailed organisation of fetes and social events are best done at committee level.  The president, treasurer and principal normally give reports. Committee coordinators, the school board liaison person and the Diocesan Parent Council representative may also give reports.
	Matters for future consideration replaces 'General Business' in an attempt to deal more productively with matters of concern raised at the last minute. People should not expect that issues, without notice, can be dealt with at the meeting at which they were raised. As always the president decides if and how the matter might best be addressed.
11. Annual general meeting
There shall be an annual general meeting of the P&F when the annual reports and financial statements are presented.	The executive committee should normally meet in the month following the AGM to handover between the committees.
	Committee co-ordinators should provide a written summary of key duties to incoming members.
12. Special general meetings
12.1 What is a special general meeting?	A special general meeting could be called in circumstances such as:
A special general meeting is a mechanism for supporting the continued operation of the P&F in unusual circumstances.	When a general meeting is not scheduled but P&F business needs to be dealt with;
	When two general meetings have been cancelled due to lack of a quorum;

	a)	A special general meeting can be called on the authority of the executive committee or on written request to the executive committee by members of ten individual families.	•	If at the annual general meeting no one has accepted positions on the executive committee and the P&F is unable to function.
	b)	A special general meeting must be held within 28 days of the request being appropriately registered or, if that 28 day period expires on a date which is not within a school term, within 14 days of the commencement of the next school term.
	c)	At least seven days' notice of the special general meeting shall be given in a prior school newsletter. The object of the meeting is to be clearly stated.
	d)	A quorum for a special general meeting is fifteen members and must include the principal (or nominee) and three members of the executive committee.
13.	Fui	nds
13.1	Hov	w are funds raised?
	a)	The executive committee is to develop a strategy for fundraising that considers the community's ability to raise funds. The proposals should then be presented to the general meeting for discussion and approval.	pri	nis fundraising strategy must be developed in partnership with the incipal and is to focus on directions and activities articulated in the hool's strategic plan.
	b)	With major fundraising events the protocols in the P&F Operational Handbook must be followed strictly.

		P&F Constitution	Explanatory Guidance Notes
13.2	Но	w are funds managed?
	a)	Funds are to be used solely for the aim of the P&F in its role of providing benefit for the school:
		<ul> <li>All funds raised by or on behalf of the P&amp;F must be banked promptly and fully intact into an account in the name of the P&amp;F and all expenses paid by cheque or EFT.</li> </ul>	Cash received should not be used to pay bills – there needs to be a paper trail of all incomings and outgoings.
		<ul> <li>Funds of the P&amp;F are to be deposited into an interest bearing account in a reputable financial institution in the name of the P&amp;F.</li> </ul>
	b)	The president, treasurer, secretary and principal shall be authorised signatories to the account. In any particular instance, the principal and any one of the P&F officers can sign cheques or authorise EFTs. At the end of their term of office, the payment authorities of P&F officers must be removed and replaced by the payment authorities of the incoming officers.	The principal's signature is included for convenience and emergency situations that may occur.
	c)	Funds are transferred to the school as a donation to support and contribute to the resourcing of the school's strategic plan. All donations are to be transferred expeditiously, in full and without restriction.
	d)	Small expenditures necessary to support community building activities are to be paid in accordance with paragraph b) above.
	e)	All accounts must be paid promptly after submission to a general meeting and if passed must be signed by the chair.
	f)	Accounts must be audited as at 31 December.

P&F Constitution		P&F Constitution	Explanatory Guidance Notes
	h)	Funds allocated to school projects, after consultation with the principal, parish priest and school board (if the school has a board), are to be included in the school's annual budget.
13.3	Ηον	w are decisions made about allocation of funds raised?
		Either late in Term 4 or early in Term 1 the principal meets with the executive committee and the school board (if the school has a board) to articulate strategic resourcing priorities for the school year and agrees with the committee a list of items linked to the school's strategic plan for which the P&F will fundraise. They will also agree on a timetable for fundraising and transferring funds to the school. This plan will be presented to the first general meeting of the year for ratification.	A consultation at the beginning of the year is essential. The principal and the school board are in the best position to suggest areas that meet the school's identified strategic priorities. However, enthusias about fundraising can only be sustained through knowledge of and a sense of ownership of how the funds are spent. The consultation needs to be realistic about the level of funding that the P&F can provide.  The amount in petty cash should be agreed to at the first general meeting and a cheque drawn. A cash float can also be made available for major one-off activities. Approval of floats should be formally agreed to and minuted at a general meeting prior to the money being needed.
	b)	The P&F then develops a fundraising strategy for the year including an annual budget for donations to the school and community building activities. The strategy is also presented to the first general meeting of the year for ratification.
	c)	With the exception of petty cash all expenditure of P&F funds must be approved or ratified by the P&F at a general meeting.
	d)	At the AGM the principal will give a short presentation about how the funds donated by the P&F have been used during the year.
13.4	Wh	at are the annual audit requirements of the P&F?
	a)	Financial records must be audited as at 31 December each year to comply with the Federal Government Financial Questionnaire Reporting.	Auditing as at 31 December is a CSO and Department of Education, Science and Training (DEST) requirement. The auditor must:
	b)	The auditor must be a qualified, independent accountant.	<ul> <li>a) Be a member of one of the following professional bodies: The Institute of Chartered Accountants, The Australian Society of CPAs or the National Institute of Accountants.</li> </ul>

	c) The annual audit must be completed in time to be accepted at the first general meeting and a copy given to the principal by 31 March each year.	b) Not be a member (or relative of a member) of the executive committee.
	<ul> <li>The auditor should provide a management letter on completion of the audit to the P&amp;F president.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>e) A copy of the audited accounts must be provided to the President of the Diocesan Parent Council by 31 March each year.</li> </ul>
14.	Subcommittees
The P&F may establish committees to carry out particular functions on its behalf. These committees are to have specific terms of reference and are to report their operations to general meetings of the P&F. Where possible, they should include at least one member of the executive committee.  After paying receipted expenses of their operations, the balance of funds of committees are to be remitted to the funds of the P&F as soon as it is practical to do so.		Committees are recommended as a means of encouraging the inclusion of as many parents and community members as possible. Volunteers are much more likely to make themselves available for specific time-limited tasks than for open-ended roles.
15.	Dissolution
15.1	How might the P&F be dissolved?
	The P&F is automatically dissolved if the school closes down or is amalgamated.
	b) The P&F can be dissolved following a special general meeting. This can be called in accordance with clause 12 specifically for the purpose of providing an opportunity for the school community to discuss the issue to dissolve the P&F. At least three-quarters of the members present must vote in favour of the resolution to dissolve the P&F for the motion to be carried.

		P&F Constitution	Explanatory Guidance Notes
	c)	In certain serious circumstances where it is judged that the functions of the P&F are at variance with the vision and mission of Catholic education, the Director of Schools may intervene and dissolve the P&F after consultation with the parish priest, principal and the president of the Diocesan Parent Council.
15.2	Wh	at happens to assets, records and funds on dissolution?
	Afte	er all expenses and liabilities are paid:
	a)	Where a school is closed under clause 15.1(a), the remaining assets, records and funds shall be handed over to the parish priest in the case of a primary school and the Catholic Schools Office in the case of a secondary school.
	b)	Where a school is amalgamated under clause 15.1(a), the remaining assets, records and funds shall be handed over to the principal of the amalgamated school for the purpose of the amalgamated school.
	c)	Where a P&F is dissolved under clause 15.1(b) or (c), the remaining assets, records and funds shall be handed over to the school principal for the purposes of the school.
